Thanks for letting me know – I appreciate all of your work on this & know it will be very helpful in deciding the right solution for San Jacinto.

Gary,

I am so sorry. Yesterday and last night was terrible. I had a doctor's apt yesterday afternoon and it took me 3 hrs before I finally left his office, and then last evening after dinner, I was working at my office at home and I fell asleep (must have been around 8:00) in my chair, and I did not wake up until 2:00. I was going to stay up all night if needed to finish the report, but obviously my state of exhaustion prevented that. I went to bed for 3 hours of real sleep. Hopefully I will have the report finished by COB today. I apologize for not making yet another deadline.

Earl
